Dear Sir

Your favour of April 5th only came to hand and I beg to tender you herewith my heartiest thanks for your very consolating words on behalf of the much lamented death of my late colleague Prof. Maximowicz. As to the last package of dried plants sent to you in summer last, I am extremely sorry that I cannot offer you just now an equal good collection of duplicates, which have all been distributed. Besides yours a similar package for Mr. N. L. Britton of the Columbia College Herbarium, New York has also been lost in transit, it went from
