

to our friends abroad, after keeping one for yourself & giving one to Brewster.

I send also several photographs - one for yourself - another for Brewster - the others to whom you please. Eliza will send more in a few days, that you may present them to such friends as we esteem - or whose photographs are desired in return.

It is late & I must close - Give much love to your dear Jane - & tell her that I hope to tell her some long stories about California when I return -

Ever affectionately yours
