you have had great advantages in the large amount of original material that you have been able to compare. As to my name being associated with yours in the authorship of the memoir, it would hardly be justified by the share I have taken in its preparation. It would have been sufficient to say that you had before you all my specimens, notes & sketches of structural details. Had I gone over the whole once more, & given my own views, before sending the collection to you, there would have been more propriety in prefixing the names of the old from "to the article. By the way, while I was talking to the Secy. Neary, last week, a Senator (whose name I forgot) on my being introduced to him, said - "Is that Torrey or Gray?" On replying in the affirmative. He replied that he had used the Flora & knew something about that!

The parcel that you have for me can be sent as soon as you please. I am ready ~~to receive~~ them.
