

THE SHAW SCHOOL OF BOTANY.

WM. TRELEASE, PROFESSOR IN CHARGE.

St. Louis, Mo., June 8. 1886.

Dear Dr. Gray:

I thank you very much for naming the Composites for me.

Yesterday I spoke to Mr. Shaw about my proposed western trip, and he at once suggested the possibility of going to you next winter if I could be exonerated from my classes. I think I can arrange that, having your approval and his. I think it will be as well not to leave frog sent while I am away, & will let you or the printer know at once on my return. But they are pending no frog at all now.
Have they not begun on the casti. of P. R. R.? I shall be about for a fortnight yet

Trelease, William. 1886. "Trelease, William June 8, 1886." Asa Gray correspondence
