

THE SHAW SCHOOL OF BOTANY.

WM. THELEAUE, PROFESSOR IN CHARGE.

Madison, Wis.

St. Louis, Mo., July 26 1886

Dear Dr. Gray:

I am safely back, after a somewhat shorter trip than I had at first planned, - but a very propitable one in many ways.

Now I am ready to read Frog just as fast as they will send it to me, and shall be glad on Mr. Shaw's account to know that the book is going along. I would gladly come on for 6 or 8 weeks, but really cannot afford to do so, nor will my wife give me another "leave of absence" this summer. I shall be here till Sept. 15.

I trust that you have gotten rid of your cough, & are otherwise well. Faithfully yours, Wm. Theleau
