Dear Amely Keet

My dear Mary. By Barker told me that this was ^{the} only plan of which they could transmit to ^{$ 8.2} 7.10.0: I hope it will not be troublesome to you. Mr. Trübner have been most liberal & kind, & say that they shall make no charge for all their trouble. I have settled about a few advertisements, & they will gratuitously insert one in their own periodicals. If you have any opportunities, would it not be well to write & thank them? He says that $1 would be sufficient price, but as they nevertheless recommended 1.6, I have of course agreed. I have distributed 100 copies to men of science & sent 100 to Reviewers, Librarians &c. I am heartily rejoiced at this, I believe your pamphlet will do me a beneficial selection, right good service. I think the title very good, but I wish the title had been rather large, yet this would have cost more. I have not selected it yet; but I see long now with Mr. Herdely. The shape of ^{part} of Box was only 12, & the advertisements will be a few pounds, for which I have told Trübner I am responsible; but I hope will cover them. Let me tell you that pamphlets will not sell. By the way, the 7.10.0 just covers cost of 100 copies at 1.6 each. If the pamphlet did sell, I wish inform you for chance of you being able to send over more. I wish heartily it would sell for your sake & that 100 profit might be sent to you. — Trübner informs me that in Box there was ~~an~~ Mr. S. bundle for me, (ie J. Wright Review). It has written to Liverpool to inquire whether it will have been lost. When Box was opened at Custom House. I hope it is not lost. - Perhaps you addressed it to Williams & Hayate or to Prof. Huxley.

Yr dear friend

Yours most sincerely
