

to prediction - as in your Hollies. - as far as I can ^{get} judge, I am not at all wrong, but I'm -
- noticeably wrong about Malagasy, at least about some of them: if a Blagie grows in a garden, it would be good to come up a plant under such a tree if it needed as well as uncultivated plants.

Thanks for Mill's pamphlet, which is very good & I had not seen it; indeed I see hardly any Harker has been here for 3 days & we had lots of pleasant talk: I am always full of Ornithology & have for him: I wish he had not 10

Apr. 21. Dear Emily Kersh

My dear Mary. - I am in your debt for two pleasant notes. First for business: I should greatly prefer your not returning any of Trübner sometimes; but you really must not return more than half, as other wise I shall have gained an immense advantage in being given away second many copies of your Pamphlet, gratefully. So add to all your kindness & letting matters remain as they are. I have settled with Trübner. - Trübner has not sold sent all;
of copies are sent repaying with

I the century like $\frac{1}{2}$ a dozen a dozen to give away. I was asked for one last yesterday.
I have never met one person who was not delighted with your writing.

Secondly, in a week or 10 days I shall send $\frac{1}{2}$ ed. on October, as you desired; & the half will soon follow for the rest of the whole, before they printed off a sheet. - I fear it can never be popular; but do not judge too hastily; for, if I do not I shall print half; for, if I do not please myself the two last chapters are better. - I believe

I have been very foolish in publishing in popular form. -

When I told Murray that I wanted clear sheet to send you; he thought of some arrangement for American republication, as he said Galt's new Book is to appear in America; but with your incomparably less important book it seems to me, as things now are, quite out of the question; but I have thought it as well just to mention what Murray said. -

The North seems going on grandly victorious; & thankful there is distinct ground broken on the Slavery question; but our stupid English cannot get believe that you will ever be a single Union again. -

I hope the you will ask your pupil to look carefully
