

Near Louisville, Ky. March 31st 1853.

My dear Sir —

You will see that I am "not slow" to avail myself of your inconsiderate offer to forward any parcels to Europe which I might send you; and herewith you will get a receipt from Adams &^{co's} Express agent for a box which was placed in his hands yesterday. It contains, ^{1°} one parcel of plank for Dr. Danbury — 2° one for Dr. Alexander — 3° one for Mr. John Carey — 4° one for Dr. Saltwell, and 5° one for yourself! — The three former I must beg the favour of you to forward in such manner as you deem best — that for Dr. Saltwell he desires me to send to Dr. Toney, but I thought it best to enclose it in the box, and ask the favour of you to return it to New York — The small parcel for yourself I am almost ashamed to send you, as it contains so little worth your acceptance, but as there are somethings in it which are unknown to me, I was influenced by selfish considerations in troubling you with them. — I have paid, as you perceive, the freight on this box to Cambridge; but other incidental charges will attend their shipment of which I am ignorant of, and which I beg the favour of you to apprise me of. If you do not I will not trouble you in this way again.

I intended to enclose in the box letters to Dr. Danbury & Alexander and Mr. Carey, but in the hurry of sending it off I had not time to write them, and so must enclose them to you by mail, in a day or two — If it be practicable

I should like to pay the freight on these parcels to London, so that the recipients may not be put to greater charge than the things perhaps are worth; but in this I must beg you to do as you think best — The parcel for Mr. Carey is not so specifically directed as I could have wished, but as I know not his address I must here also call in your kindness to my aid —

How do you come on with the Beilander Collection?
— I am afraid you have paid dearly for the whisks in this undertaking. Nothing would prove more annoying than minutely poor specimens of interesting things — I beg that you will make yourself perfectly easy as to any part of them which you may have intended for me. When entirely convinced you may send them by express, directed to the care of Morton & Grosswold, Booksellers, Louisville, Ky.

I do not remember whether I have written to you since the receipt of your favour of the 5th Feb. Although I have not the pleasure of knowing Prof^r Henry personally, I agree with you entirely in all you say about him — That those in the Bankwoods appreciate his worth, you will see by the newspaper slip I send you, which appeared in our leading paper about the terms of the trouble in Washington.

Very truly, my dear Sir, I am your friend and obliged

Smt C. D. Short,

Prof Gray.

BHL

Biodiversity Heritage Library

Short, Charles Wilkins. 1855. "Short, Charles W. Mar. 31, 1855." Charles Wilkins Short letters to Asa Gray

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/225933>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/254452>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

Arcadia 19th Century Collections Digitization/Harvard Library

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The Library considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection

License: <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-sa/4.0/>

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.