

2 April
1880

Dear Breckinridge
Your capital has to land this morning in best condition. I am advising Mr. Hall (who has been very bad
here during this cold weather) - who has

a lot of his plants
as one specimen with a view to one of my allotments for growing &c.

See one very large.
I have a large collection (now will be doubled)
from Central China

(Tchang) in hand.

See very large

Ornith

In Tschang - also is at Wuyang for a few days - will doubtless
write me his letters.
