New-York, Jan 29 1880 -

Dear Watson,

Coming to the office this A.M. I find your note complaining "No copy yet" - As the notification that you needed copy only reached me day before yesterday - and as yesterday I ~~was~~ was laid up with a sick headache. The moral is that you should ask several days ahead -

There are several things in your last to answer - several things I wish to ask you - all of which must wait until I can write you -

The object of this is to say that I have sent by ^{express} ~~mail~~ today, copies from pp. 40 to 88 incl - besides the Ischae num which should come after Rau icene in the arrangement I have adopted. Will send some more in a few days as soon as I can write a few words - Thank you for any changes or suggestions or queries that will help to the betterment of the matter -

In haste Truly

George Thresher

P.S. Parcel goes by express - as it costs but about half as much as by mail & we get a receipt for it - which noble Sam giveth not -

I find on my book
