

505 PARK AVENUE,
BALTIMORE. MD.

29 Mch. 1887.

My dear Dr. Gray,

I have sent on to Messrs. Conby and Redfield your pleasant letter of leave-taking.
How much we will hope, that after you have been at sea for a few days both catarrh and lumbago will have left you forever.

Since nothing less heroic than a sea-voyage treatment could cure you of the more serious malady — addiction to too much work — we will acquire with as good grace as possible in your going away from us, and I wish you a happy voyage, a pleasant sojourn, and a safe return.

Yours faithfully,

John Donnell Smith
