

April 28th 1862.

My dear Dr. Gray.

The enclosed I am requested by Miss De Vries to forward to you. The poor thing, in the course of a few weeks has been bereft of father & mother & a brother. She bears this heavy affliction with great resignation.

I am getting old & good for nothing & liable annually to attacks of the nervous system, which compel me to seek relief from the War.

two of Hamogate, as I did last year, or from the mild climate of Devonshire whither I am going to morrow.

Remember me
very kindly & affectionately to Mrs. Gray, who I hope is well, &
believe me,

Faithfully

Yours,

W. J. Hooker.
