

March 5 1898

Dear Mrs Gray,

I have none of my father's scientific correspondence, but many of his own letters returned by friends. By the way, these are very charming - and worthy to see the light.

Now and then I find an autograph on some pamphlet, or book sent my father. I will bear you in mind. I have N. B. Ward, and I think Inghett,

At our college herbarium we have all Olney's correspondence and if you will let me know your wants, it is possible that something might be found. I will get our excellent Curator, Mr Collins, to look. The correspondence is voluminous, but all systematized, we can tell at once if we have any desired correspondent. I shall certainly take an early opportunity to see you

Collection, I have written to Prof Beal to secure a likeness of my father for you, I shall be happy to know you possess it.

I have two such lovely children! I must indeed show them to you, My boy will be 12 next month, and the Lottie, is over 9, They are the joy of my heart. I think Dr Gray knew my dear old friend - Mr Hunt, I had not supposed to see the death of Mr Portland - a great loss,

Cordially ever

W. W. Bailey

Bailey, William Whitman. 1895. "Bailey, William W. Mar. 5, 1895 [to J. Gray]."
Asa Gray correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/221276>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/259002>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

Arcadia 19th Century Collections Digitization/Harvard Library

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.