Dear Mrs Gray,

I send herewith a list of Mr Olney's correspondents. If, among them you find any names you desire, please let us know, when, it is possible that something could be done. For instance, there may be from any desired person a number of letters - where we could spare an unimportant one; or, perhaps, in any case, can exchange with you - for say, some one whom we have not. Any thing that I own personally, I would let you have anyway. In college things - of course I have to make every thing straight.

My wife goes to N. Y. today to see her mother - who is at a Hospital for principal operation; which was successful - but leaves her in poor shape.

Truly Yours
W. W. Bailey
