

Southampton, Sept. 12/66.

My dear Doctor:

Yours of the 9th inst and accompanying Circular are duly received. I wrote day before yesterday to Mr Fay about his books requesting him to send the documents to me if he thought he could get them here in time or to you or if he had to send to Savannah to delay until my return. Please write him what you think best Address "William F. Fay," ^{Esq} Bainbridge, Decatur Co. Georgia."

I went into Southampton yesterday and ordered 8000 labels struck off in form as you directed, Antique Type like the Flus. I am so so - expect to leave New England by the 1st prox.

I have to look up a Deputy Collector at an annual salary of 1095 $ or or 38. perhaps I would like to give it to a botanist if they were ever good for any thing in such matters. Do you know of any one? writing a good enveloping hand with a knowledge of book-keeping?

This writing makes me rather tiring and please excuse further word

Yours ever
C. D. Chapman

P.S. Yes I received the diploma of Amer. Acad Sci and ~~it~~ duly acknowledged it

Chapman, A. W. 1866. "Chapman, Alvan W. Sept. 12, 1866." Asa Gray correspondence
