Dear D^r Gray

I have told the printers to send you
clean sheets of vol ii
and I send by this post some sheets (which are the reverse of clean) of vol iii

I am very sorry I have no better ones
to send, — they are the only spare ones
I have here.

You will see that I am away from home
and cannot therefore give you kind messages
to my mother.
Yours very truly
Francis Darwin

May I say that I have no right to the title of Professor with which you honour me

Darwin, Francis. 1831. "Darwin, Francis undated." Asa Gray correspondence
