

1888?

Cambridge, Aug. 22.

Dear Goodale,

I received your letter this afternoon, I concluded that I must go ahead with my list for I could not keep the box as it was. It was several feet square and too heavy to lift and I had no place to keep the large number of pamphlets as my room is in terrible confusion and the janitor wants to have it cleaned for the season in a few days. Therefore

I made out a list of names from my register and sent off all the wrapped copies.
I have done up packages for Lovering and Mr. Lowell and stowed away 130 copies in my side-board until the arrangements are made on Saturday Monday, I send a list alphabetically of foreign and American and you will see that they are almost entirely names from the Dana list and need only to be checked off on Monday. I sent one copy to Mrs. Gray and one to Mr. Eliot. also to Greenough and Dr. Walcott, not on the list I believe and therefore sent privately. Please keep the list enclosed as I have a duplicate.
I am making a desperate effort to clean up as I must get away soon
