

Dear Mr. Watson,

I should be delighted to get a copy of Hooker's Gingermanniae but I do not know whether I can afford to pay for it, if it is to be sold.

I do not subscribe to Carrington & Pearson's Hepaticae. Is there a set at the Garden? I now have so little left out of my annual appropriation, of which I have to pay Seymour $100, that my purchases are limited. I hope that there is a set of Carrington & Pearson somewhere in Cambridge.

I went to the Garden a little before six tonight to get the Lindenberger & Gottschke for Eatow but the books being rearranged I could not find it in the twilight so that I shall have to go again. As soon as I can get an afternoon I shall go to the Garden.

In haste
W.G. Harlow,
