

Dear Mr. Watson,

I presume that Mr. Balander's lichens are all in the Yuckerman collection as they were named by Yuckerman.
At any rate, there are a great many specimens from Balander in the collection. Nevertheless I suppose that it would be well to buy a set
if the price is not too high. Do you know what the sets cost?

The North American Continent seems to be convulsed over the appointment of Fernald
to take charge of the botany at Harvard.
People keep asking me about him. Seriously, it looks as if the Fernald family had a hand in this wholesale advertising and it is,
perhaps, to be feared
that such a trumpet blast promises little good. Yours, truly, W. E. Harlow.

Farlow, W. G. 1842. "Farlow, William G. undated [to S. Watson] [6th item]." Asa Gray correspondence
