

My dear Mrs. Gray,

If possible I will be at the Garden
tomorrow afternoon
about half past five in season to have a talk before dinner. Unfortunately, I am overrun with business and I have promised to present a case at the Faculty Meeting tomorrow
and do not know whether

I shall be able to get away in season. If I come at all I will come early and, if you do not see me, you will understand the reason of my absence.

I have seen the notice of Mr. Sprague
but have not yet
seen the notice of
Mr. Redfield.

Yours in haste,
W. G. Farlow.

Farlow, W. G. 1842. "Farlow, William G. undated [to J. Gray]." Asa Gray correspondence
