Pontreilas House
Hereford
Sept 10 1850

My dear Gray

We are quite ready to receive you the earliest day you can make it convenient to come You say the 1st or 2^d let us say the 1st October (next Tuesday week) If you come by the Express train which leaves Paddington Station at 5 minutes before ten it land you at Gloucester before one You will find a Hereford coach (the Mayappa) starting from Gloucester station at one o'clock which will arrive at Rop a little after three and at

Ann Benthams
Pontreilas Sep. 10th 1850

Llandinabo between $\frac{1}{2}$ past 3 and 4 - We are 16 miles from Rop, only 10 from Llandinabo but there are no horse or vehicles to be had at the latter place so if you come on by the coach to ~~Rop~~ ^{Llandinabo}, if you will write to me beforehand, I will send a fly from an inn close here to meet you at Llandinabo - otherwise you must take a fly from Rop - or if Mr Gray does not like the trouble of the coach by writing beforehand to Mr Barrett Royal Hotel Rop, he would send a fly to meet you at Gloucester Station and by only changing horses at Rop you would come on in the same fly from Gloucester here. If you do not take the Express, the next train starting $\frac{1}{2}$ past ten does not get in to Gloucester till near three when another Hereford ^(the Arrow) coach starts via Rop & Llandinabo

I hope this fine weather may not be all gone before you come

Yours very sincerely
George Deutham

Do not go on to Hereford as that is quite out of the way and 12 miles from us though our port town
