

45, Torrington Square,
London, W.C.
1 April, 1891

Dear Sir,

Mr. Oyer has handed me your draft for £68^{..}17^{..}3, in payment of Set II of my collection of Chinese Plants, I thank you for your kindness and promptitude in sending the draft so early: and I enclose you a formal receipt for the amount.

I hope you will be satisfied with the specimens.
They are all in good condition, I fancy, and the duplicates will I suppose be of service to you

Henry

The work of distribution was a difficult one, as so many of the plants have been collected under many different numbers.

I am very pleased that Harvard has secured a good set, as I understand the interest of Chinese plants to you in connection with your own flora. I am.

Yours very truly,
Augustine H. S. H. S.

P.S. I return to China in June ~~China~~; but I do not know whether I shall be able to make further collections.

What I myself am particularly interested in is the economic side of Chinese botany -

If there ^{is} anything I ~~could~~ do for you on my return to China, you could communicate with me (after July) c/o Commissioner of Customs, Shanghai.
Your friend Mr. C. C. Clarke is also a very good friend of mine.

To Prof. Sereno Watson,
Harvard
