

Vines
Christ College
Cambridge
Aug. 16.

Dear Mr. Gray,

I am much indebted to you for your kind letter apropos the new edition of Psalm 66, and I would have acknowledged it sooner had I not hoped to be able to do so in person - I was not however so fortunate as to find you at home when I called last week. The inaccuracies which you point out shall have my best attention when I come to revise the book for a future edition.

My plans are, to remain here till about the end of the month, and then go for a trip to Holland - I expect the away not more than two or three weeks at the utmost, and am anxious to have a quiet time here before lectures begin again in October. Should you find it necessary to come to Cambridge about that time, as indeed I hope you will, I shall be very happy to ensure your entrance to the Museum -

With very kind regards to yourself & to Mr. Gray.

I remain

Yours faithfully
Sydney H. Vines
