London W.
Jan 21. 1861

My Dear Dr. Gray

I had not intended to take Wright's plants — for I am getting poor sold — However now they are laid out for me let them come. I write in haste having unluckily mislaid y. V. of Dec. 10.
and being on the point of running into the country for a day or two.

I shall send back Wright's dupl.
Order — along with dried plants for you sometime this spring — that is to say if the Southwestern have not eaten you. Yours truly
Wh. Lindley
