

As to the new honors, I hoped Dr. Hooker might have the luck to keep them all a while longer,
- unless they come, in a very disturbance
form. So it seems they have - and sure no
one has a better right
to make things, and to the advantages they may bring.

Sent by Boston. or sent by Dr. Hooker the things he is -
much obliged to you.
Ever yours cordially

Asa Gray

Reps to the projected American trip after Hooker's 2nd marriage.

My Dear Prof. Oliver.
HERBARIUM OF HARVARD UNIVERSITY, BOTANIC GARDEN, CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

June 18

1877

This morning I have Sir Joseph's letters, of the 4th & 6th -

Of - as may be supposed - he comes via N.Y. on the 30th instead of to Boston on the 28th. This may reach him. It is possible it may, in any case -
I venture the following memos.

We wanted to telegraph
that, in Mrs. Gray's judgment (and she is a very capable judge)
it would be the very best thing for Mrs. Hooker
- I mean Lady Hooker -
to come. She could in any case hear more than

Mrs. Gray - and she looks upon the whole as for the ladies - an easy &
delightful summer
trip. - no hardships
at all - & little weariness. It is perfect enjoyment, as now &
we get 2 or miles W.
of the Mississippi.

We are grievously disappointed at her not coming, & are looking to her of a change
of mind.

Just - Before this time I trust that I should be free from all
worry on our account about the
St. Michaels. All will be pleased with their company. All

is looking well. - very we are grieved at the loss of time - &
we ought to be in the field.

If we learn that
they come here -
we shall await
their arrival, and
be ready to start after
one day here to arrange.

If they go to New York, we will meet
them there, & start

directly. Niagara
will await their return from the far west.
