

Sunningdale 21. April, 1887

Dear Mr. St. Kew I have been very busy determinations of Palmer's Plants, & shall soon be idle. I can not use the tickets as I have on (as I should like) because the Matildas are not given in your transcript of my sets, and all the tickets have the Matilda printed on them. Please have Selsdon to copy the nos. & add Matilda, say by an initial s or other mark, for that reason. i.e. - 1. a or some other 2. b. or some other

Oliver has taken me, for the time of Palmer.
He says he will attend to it at once. We are well & very enough. There are about 10 days before we cross to Paris. Shall be glad to hear from you. -- Sincerely Adalmer
