

Dr Asa Gray
author of Bot^l Leyden Tuesday Evening Cambridge

Book -

Dear Sir George Gray Flora do

I write a hurried note by Mr. Bowen who goes to New York in the morning.

Will you send the little parcel ~~herewith~~ (which Mr. Bowe kindly leaves) to Mr. Putnam at London by first post -

You spoke of a parcel that had recently been sent me from your place. None has come.
Has Mr. White any record or memory now it was sent?

A box of books was sent from Munich last autumn early. I suppose it has stuck on the way.
But will George White see that there is nothing for me in public store, or for American Academy of Arts Sciences!

Will you send me Alexander's Isaiah the moment it is out? I am studying that book with an interesting Bible class.

I wrote you a line about young Grant.
I have seen something of him, and think highly of him. He would make a good clerk, and he wants a place sadly. It will not do for him to study.
Can you aid him?

Yours ever. A. Gray
