

Yours June 9-79

Boston, Mass. June 6/87/9

My Dear Mrs. Meyers

I am sensible of very great, but not wilful neglect, but you will excuse me when I tell you that the last two months have been full of troubles to me and mine and that I am coming out of them weighed down with responsibilities that preclude all further botanical work for - I dare not say how long.

It is only your kindly interest in all that I have done that leads me to say so much.

Today my heart is saddened

by the sudden and unexpected death of my dear father
one of the kindest and best of men, a devout Christian man whose integrity no man ever questioned and who can stand before the throne of his God with his silver locks glorified and blessed.

My heart is too sad today to write more and in this new affliction I have forgotten for the time being other troubles that will come back upon me soon enough.

I have not heard from Dr Perry, nor have I received the money.

Very Respectfully
Yrs. Ed Daraport

Davenport, Geo. E. 1879. "Davenport, George E. Jun. 9, 1879 [to F.J. Myers]."
George Edward Davenport correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/251757>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/268461>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.