

NEW YORK,

Oct. 21 1889.

My Dear Dr. Watson :-

Your Eleocharis
started for home on Saturday.
Much thanks.

I have been trying to help Mr. Dyer to fill up gaps of American serials in the Kew Library. We have filled him up with the New York Societies and the Philadelphia and San Francisco people are now in communication with him with a view to the same thing. But I have no "pull" on the American Academy. Wont you take this in hand? The enclosed letter and memorandum will explain what is desired.

Is there any surplus Luzula
Carolinæ about your shop?

Very Sincerely Yours
N. L. Britton.

Britton, Nathaniel Lord. 1889. "Britton, Nathaniel L. Oct. 21, 1889 [to S. Watson]." Asa Gray correspondence
