PINE GROVE

PHILBROOK FARM

FROM CABOT

SHELBOURNE, N. H.

Oct 1 1912

Dr. Arthur Drane

Thanks for letter. I is good to hear from you. How I wish we could sit down together and just talk. I am getting on very well. It has been awful slow till the last two weeks.
Now I am going on fine Margie did not mind it much she was out and about in no time Jas. Howard is engaged and he has a very nice bright little woman. The house is just cleaning out. I took Twenty one people to the station yesterday morning. We have only Twenty three left with us.

Jas. You shall have the potatoes and apples, and will send them along the last of this mo.

Please give my kindest regards to Mrs. Davis. Dr. & Mrs. Coolidge How often I think of you all

Yours truly
Aug. E. Philbrick
