GEORGE HILL ROAD
LANCASTER, MASSACHUSETTS

April 2. 1928

Dear Mr. Deane

Thank you for my card. I have been on my back since I saw you two month ago.
I have had Intestinal Grippe, which came mighty near "getting me", but I think I must be mighty tough.

I will be 66 tomorrow
and although I have lost twenty pounds
and feel weak, I am the same.

Mrs. T sends her love and says you must come to Lancaster
this Spring.

Affectionately
John E. Thayer

P.S. I was very much touched that you remembered my birthday

Thayer, John Eliot. 1928. "Thayer, John Eliot Apr. 2, 1928." Walter Deane correspondence
