

Simply can't realize it, dear,
#As you are a refugee man plus: but your men can all gentlemen - even if you never could be anything & yet a delightful gentleman.
May the years spare your and bring you joy without limit.
Cordially yours.
Am. Talbot.

May 10, 1921.

804 South Lincoln Avenue
Urbana, Illinois

Dear dear:

It was good of you to take McGehee in hand.
I think he will wear well if you can pick him up now and then for something; and it is worth a free deal to a young man away from home to have affairs of your kindliness and enthusiasms.

When I feel I'm a very insignificant imitation of a human being. The other day I saw me. The privilege of seeing the young lady who probably will go to Boston with him: so you may have a chance to be doubly good to him, for see, when he comes to you.

Next fall I hope to tell you all about the most favorable crops I have ever known. 1880, too, is a landscape man.
There isn't as much of him as there was before the war: but what is left isn't always as comfortable as it used to be: but what is left is very much alive.
He is one of the two kinds I know before

Trelease, William. 1921. "Trelease, William May 10, 1921." Walter Deane correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/252841>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/270616>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.