

Dear Mr. Garrison
 I have just received your letter of the 17th inst. and am glad you were so kind as to write me. I am out of the way of writing at present but will not keep you long. I am sending you a box of the periodicals I have expected to have none. I hope you will finish your series that you commenced. I am sure you will send them to Missison's office who sent me her sister Louisa Alcott's "In the morning" - member how grateful to Thoreau & her daughter Sophia after the death of Henry Thoreau were the letters of sympathy that came to them from those who knew & loved Henry either personally or through his writings. I can now send you F. B. Sanborn's tribute to Mr. P. & Louisa Alcott's "In Memoriam" if you have them not. I will write to Dr. Wilbur & Mary Fiske - from both of whom I receive delightful letters. to send you a root or roots of the White Lady's Slipper - I wish I had

Hosmer, Eliza. 1878. "Hosmer, Eliza May 1, 1878." George Edward Davenport correspondence
