

Morgantown, W. Va.

Dec. 27, 1903.

My dear Mr. Collins,-

This is no hurry about those specimens. I shall have to work them over at odd moments, and can do them about as well one time as another. I don't think I shall find the list necessary till I have looked over what specimens I have available, and then we ~~can~~ <sup>E. R.</sup> easily arrange, I think, some method of procedure, which will be as little trouble as possible.

Trust you are having a very pleasant holiday season.

Yours sincerely
John C. Andrews

I received sincerely yours, you will. If you have the specimens ready
I can attach to the kindly Dr. L. R. Andrews, and much obliged for the found hard a great favor in this. I would say O.K.
