

Malden Mass Jan 10 1898

Dear Mr. Collins -

Prof Mac Millan wrote me some time since about the index, but he was evidently mistaken as to your copy, having been sent to me. I waited some time to see if it was on the way, & then wrote him.

His reply has just come by the same mail as your card, & for what he says he has arranged for your copy.

I am just getting up from the Grippe, & almost everybody I know has had it: hope you have been more fortunate. Very truly Yours
Frank S. Collins
