

Cambridge Mass. June 18/18

No. 21 has come from Birmingham. Good You are getting east. The tree-less plains must be impressive. I wrote you, as you suggested to Miss Mabel, but you couldn't have got it, I fear. Well, I attend Commencement on the 20th, and go on to Shelburne on the 22^d June. Dr. Brainerd is slowly recovering. He has had a hard time - It will be long ere he is over it.
J. R. Churchill & family are in Denver, hardy collecting - All are well here - Your cards have been a great pleasure - W. D. Deane

THIS SIDE OF CARD IS FOR ADDRESS

Prof. F. F. Collins, 468 Hope St.
Providence
R. I.

Please forward -

Deane, Walter. 1918. "Deane, Walter June 18, 1918 [postcard]." James Franklin Collins correspondence
