

My dear Mr. Collins,

You have returned my note very promptly, and I thank you again for the interest you have taken in it and for the help you have given me.
Since you think it worth while I will send a note about it to the Biologist if I may have permission to use your name in connection with it. I hardly think it probable that we shall go to Middle Dam again but if we should you may be sure I shall have my eyes open.

It may not be out of place
for me to write you that Mrs.
Mary L. Steven's husband died suddenly last Friday night.

Very truly yours
Olyabete M. Dunham.

Octbr. 14.

53 Maple St.
Aubundale, Mass.

Dunham, Elizabeth Marie. 1906. "Dunham, Elizabeth M. Oct. 14, [1906]." James Franklin Collins correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/258625>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/273926>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

Andrew W. Mellon Foundation

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.