

Cambridge
Sept. 7
1881

Dear Mr. Collins, I received your letter and am sorry that there seems to be no chance of your getting away for the year.
I am to leave town in a few moments and can only say that if you can make arrangement
for coming to Cambridge part of the time I shall be glad. As I am to be away and as it is still very uncomfortable at the Museum, I should not be ready to have work begin until I get back or about Oct, 1

If you can make an arrangement for coming on certain days I shall be very glad. I have written to Prof. Bailey
