

Cambridge
Jan 2.
1902.

Dear Mr. Collins,
To tell the truth I have been so busy trying to clean up my own
things that I have not been planning
anything special for you to do. I thought it probable that you might go to Washington this week
and therefore supposed that, if your vacation ended early next week, you would have no time to come to Cambridge.

The work to be done was the insertion of some of the gammas and Zax on Hepatics, the remnant of what was left over last year. They are still in the cage where they were and I think that later, Mr

Bullard can put them up. The arrangement of the moss duplicate for distribution will have to wait until later.

Wishing you a Happy New Year, I am,

Yours truly

W. G. Farlow.

I have been too
busy to go to Washington
but Mr. Thaxter is there.

Farlow, W. G. 1902. "Farlow, William G. Jan. 2, 1902." James Franklin Collins correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/258622>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/274114>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

Andrew W. Mellon Foundation

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.