

Cambridge
May 29 1908.

Dear Mr. Collis,

I am very much obliged to you and Mr. Bartlett for the Sphagnum Taxonii and also for the naming of the Alaska mosses. The unnamed specimens I shall put away in the herbarium although it is hardly likely that they will be of use to anyone.

I am sorry that we

Have not seen more of you this year but I know that you have no time to spare
now.

Yours, very truly,
W. G. Scawen.
