HERBARIUM AND LABORATORIES
OF CRYPTOGAMIC BOTANY

W. G. Farlow,

Cambridge, Mass., U.S.A.

Feb. 10, 1914.

Dear Mr. Collins,

I am much obliged for your letter and will speak to Dr. Robinson about Mr. Winslow.
With regard to the Renauld mosses I am not certain how they had better be kept, whether by themselves or inserted in herbarium. I should be glad to know what you think but naturally, without having seen them,

You may not feel like having an opinion.

I regret to see that it will not be possible to work at the Museum on Sunday. We have ~~to~~ had to make a rule that no key to the outer door shall be given or lent to any person and the Museum itself is not open ^{to the public}, until 1 P.M.

The rule seemed necessary for our own protection and to guard against the too liberal ~~into~~ lending on the part of some of the very few who are authorized by the rules to have a key.

Yours, very truly
W. G. Harlow.
