

Portland, Nov. 11, 1907.

My dear Prof; -

Your letter reached the Postoffice Sunday morning but did not come to hand till today, and I hasten to reply to the questions as they stand:-

1. A few of our lecturers have worn Evening dress, but only a few. I don't hesitate to say it would be quite unnecessary.
2. The lectures are free to the public. Admission by tickets which may be had free on application to the Curator or Committee.
3. I will very gladly send notice, with tickets, to such persons as you name.
4. We have a reading lamp shielded ~~as~~ you suggest which I think will answer ^{the} purpose. It's an argand gas lamp.
5. We have the signal line with a very light buzzer. I don't know that there is a light attached. I will see.
6. I have noted the title "The Gaspé Coast". Would it inconvenience me! Well I should say not. Come Sunday by all means if you possibly can. I think I wrote that I should expect you to stay at my house while you are here and I certainly hope you will come Sunday.

Sincerely yours Dana W. Fellows

Fellows, Dana Willis. 1907. "Fellows, Dana W. Nov. 11, 1907." James Franklin Collins correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/258622>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/274243>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

Andrew W. Mellon Foundation

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.