

GRAY HERBARIUM OF HARVARD UNIVERSITY,

BOTANIC GARDEN, CAMBRIDGE, MASS.,

June 23, 1905

Dear Collins:

I have just done what I supposed my last shopping, and I fear that I shall have no chance to get into Boston again. If so I will get the leggings. I have a suit of oil-skin shoes not planned to take & if the trousers are large enough as I think they will be, I will bring them along.

The plan is altered to this extent. I go to Orono next Thursday night, the 29th. The Williams & Ames party will leave Boston on the night train on Sunday the 2^d for Fort Kent, via Bangor. I shall take the train at Orono, & you can get it Monday morning either at Waterville or Bangor. We shall spend the night of the 3^d and the forenoon of the 4th at Fort Kent, where I have engaged rooms for all, and a buckboard to drive us up or down river on the 4th. Then take the Teniscanata Express about 1 o'clock getting to Rivière du Loup for late supper.

There rooms are reserved for us, the front corner rooms, 2^d floor, &c.
All board is arranged & definite at Bic, Carleton, and Percé, but not a word has been heard from Little Cascapedia!

The Warden of the river has a fine house and gives good board &c. at Ste. Anne des Monts.

Hope to see you Monday morning.
I'd ask you to Orono, but our house will be crowded. You might come there Saturday night & stay at the Orono House, which is all right, and cheaper than Bangor House. Let me know if you do that. Address after Wednesday, Orono.
Hastily - M. L. F.

Fernald, Merritt Lyndon. 1905. "Fernald, Merritt L. June 23, 1905." James Franklin Collins correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/258622>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/274392>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

Andrew W. Mellon Foundation

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.