

35 Walter St. Cambr.

Feb. 2, 1910

Dear Collins:

Will you be willing to take the lantern slides which I had from you, on Friday night? I have hopes to return them in person but I see no chance of getting to Prov.
at present, and do not wish to keep them from you so long as I might if I wait for a Providence trip.

Your card saying that you were to have company on Christmas Day came Dec 28th which explains my innocent intrusion on Christmas afternoon. I am sorry to have made you so much inconvenience -

Sincerely - H. L. F.
