

Readville, Mass.

9 Nov 1905

Dear Collins:

I called today
at the Inst of Tech. &
had quite a chat
with the Bursar
& learned that tho'
it was not absolutely necessary that the speaker for the evening
should be in evening
dress, yet it was
customary for him
to so appear:

Mr Brooks, the speaker
last evening was in evening dress & I have no doubt it would be better for you to wear
it -

I am sorry that owing to my eyesight I shall not be able to go with you on that evening, but I am delighted to think
of you thus telling
the Appalachians
abt Gaspe' —

very truly Yr G. G. K.
