

THE PINES, BLUE HILL,
READVILLE, MASS.

1 Jan 1915

Dear Collins,

I have your kind
letter of yesterday & reciprocate your good wishes for the coming year.

The 10.31 at Hyde Park
is a good train if you will send word
the day before that we may drive over to the station for
you. It's about a mile longer to use the Hyde Park Station, but we

frequently do use
it, particularly since they have made so many changes of trains.

Don't try to walk
over here from the H.P. station, its kind
of an awkward
place to get started right and we can easily send over.

I envy you the health, strength & perseverance that will make your

Southern trip a very pleasurable task
for you.

As for me I only stand aside and
look on at present,
three score and
ten years + begin to sell.

Remember me to your family +
believe me

Sincerely yrs
Geo G Kennedy

Kennedy, George G. 1915. "Kennedy, George G. Jan. 1, 1915." James Franklin Collins correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/258528>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/275153>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

Andrew W. Mellon Foundation

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.