

212 Shepard St.,
Cambridge, Mass.,
20 Oct. 1898.

Dear Mr. Collins:

Many thanks for your res. again safely
at hand, and, as I think,
much improved by the supplementary notes.

I trust you will not give up your Maine
bryological work to Mr.
Merrill(?). You are certainly better equipped than he is to carry it on.

I presume your article will appear in the February issue, the January number being already too nearly full to take it.

Do not fail to be on the lookout for phanero-zoic notes also for the journal.

cordially,

D. L. Robinson.
