

78 Orange Street.
Brooklyn, N.Y.

July 2 - 1900.
My dear Mr Collins -

I thank you heartily for your card & note. There are so many typographic mistakes in the July Brythat I am quite ashamed. The fault-lessness is first into the printer. Both Mr G. & I omitted all the mistakes I so far have discovered - nevertheless I am ashamed & hide my diminished head.
We shall hope for better results in the future. We all missed you on the 27th - It was a fine day & I have seemed to inspire many to renewed enthusiasm for Insects & Botany at large -

I am off to the Admirals as soon as I have "cleared the decks" so please make excuses for a hasty note. The Gmt has gone to Newfane, Vt. The work is planned for Bay - for next year.
The Chapter work is outlined as far as can be - till the election!

Hastily & cordially
Ann Smith Smith
