

Cambridge Oct. 28. 1872
My Dear Thiriot

I got mine yesterday.
I received your letter of the 26th to-day - which I answer immediately - to say

Ringold's Expedition is just the thing! I am glad you acceded to it so promptly for there will be plenty of applications for the place

Sandwich Island is a fine field. You know I am working up S. I plants in the Appl. Exped. I trust it will go well.

Neither have I heard from Fanny. I would remain quiet where you are at present.

I shall write to Fanny again by this day's mail.

No proof of M. Wright
yet. I shall ask after it soon.

In haste. Yours truly

Alfred
Gray
