

Cambridge T. May, 1853

Dear Wright

Thanks for your letter of the 29th ult.

Hearing that your squad,
has actually sailed for Norfolk,
I write you, under cover to Com.
Knights, & send, to his care, the May no. of Silliman's Journal.

Please let me know how I shall send them hereafter, as well as other things I shall have to send.

Printing of Expt. & Spec.
Botany has already begun.
- so that I may be able to send to you, at the Sandwich Island - proofs or sheets of what may relate to those H.M.S.

So you go by the Cape.
Very well. I know nobody there - now that Harvey is no longer there, - nor any one in the "H.M.S."

I suppose you distribute your prizes among the different vessels.

Obstacles disappear after you get at work, - when, I doubt not the officers will see that you have facilities, beyond what your narrow quarters afford.

If I get no instructions, I shall send to you through the Navy Department. Nesbit ingram, who will of course be sending mails monthly to your Squadron.

Let me hear from you
as often as convenient,

I lately forwarded $82.00 to your brother (from old Brown) share his acknowledgement of same.

Mrs. Gray has been quite poorly for a month or two - is now better - but not strong, at all.

She joins in best wishes for a prosperous cruise and a safe return. I expect to hear from you at San Francisco.
Yours very cordially A. Gray
